

Who wins at SAGA 2015? And will the winner wins an Oscar in 2015?

We look very carefully the SAGA (Screen Actors Guild Awards) because we think that whoever wins has a good chance to win the Oscar (Academy Awards).

Eddie Redmayne won against the favorite Michael Keaton. The Englishman, who played the role of the scientist Stephen Hawking in The Theory Of Everything, has passed the star of Birdman. Redmayne has dedicated this victory to all those living with ALS for their "triumph of the spirit." Visibly shocked and excited, during the delivery of the coveted, he told listeners that he learned a lot during the filming of the movie.

"I would like to dedicate this victory to all those people in the world who are living with ALS, to those who lost their lives in this brutal disability. Preparing the character of Stephen I met many people who are fighting ALS, and I met the their families who are struggling with them. the courage, temerarietà and spirit. this triumph of the spirit that I bear witness, have illuminated my mind. For this I am so grateful to them."
